

STUDENT CONDUCT & THE WHOLE CHILD

Maria Montessori once said, “To let the child do as he likes when he has not yet developed any powers of control is to betray the idea of freedom.” Throughout her life as a pioneer in education, Maria frequently emphasized the need for boundaries amongst the freedoms bestowed upon children. As stated in our School-Family Compact, it is fundamental for the entire Walden Green community to support our Behavior Rubric guidelines (“boundaries”) in order to help develop each child’s sense of responsibility and accountability. All children make mistakes at some point; whether it’s hurtful conduct or disruptive/off-task behavior. But at Walden Green, we view mistakes as golden opportunities to learn. To abandon these learning moments is to abandon the child. A large component of our research-based Behavior Rubric System is to engage children in a reflective process that seeks to identify some of the motivations for their particular actions. Yet our approach to addressing student conduct goes well beyond the Student Behavior Report forms that are sent home. Here is a brief list of school-wide strategies and tools that systematically support the social/emotional growth of our students:

- ▶ “grace and courtesy” lessons (focused on etiquette and manners)
- ▶ community gatherings (most mornings, often student led)
- ▶ team building activities and challenges that require cooperation and collaboration
- ▶ role play scenarios (focusing on conflict resolution skills)
- ▶ peace songs (utilizing music at All School Sing to cultivate compassion and wisdom)
- ▶ peer mentoring (across classrooms and grade levels)
- ▶ service learning (projects and excursions into the local community)
- ▶ interdisciplinary units that highlight global justice, fairness and peace
- ▶ “bystander” training (equipping students to stand up for others with dignity)
- ▶ “confronting friends” training (promoting healthy dialogue between friends)
- ▶ “the peacemaker’s path” (visual step by step tool to help peer conflicts)
- ▶ “the solution wheel” (8 different choices for students to practice being problem-solvers)
- ▶ “time to think” forms (reflective tool for getting at the “heart” of a behavior)

As you can see, the holistic development of each child is one of our primary goals. Providing a safe and nurturing learning environment is foundational for us to be successful. Therefore, we intervene when any level of misconduct occurs because every child in every class has the right to come to Walden Green without the fear of being disrespected as an individual or disrupted as a learner. We expect all families to support us in this vision. The mutual partnership between home and school is often the catalyst for a child’s success in education. We are here to support your child with our dynamic program and personnel. We deeply appreciate your support and commitment from home.

OUR BEHAVIOR RUBRIC SYSTEM

Dear Parents/Guardians,

As part of an ongoing effort to enhance the peaceful learning environment at our school, we utilize a prevention program to reduce mean and aggressive behavior and bullying. This program includes staff training, student training and parent education based on the work of Dr. Marcia McEvoy - a widely recognized expert in the field of school aggression and bullying prevention. This program trains the staff on policies and procedures for intervening consistently using a shared common language with specific consequences for aggressive behavior. Our program implements a school-wide behavior rubric system based on precise conduct standards. Specific consequences have been developed for specific kinds of aggressive behavior. Students in schools with a rubric-based approach know how discipline is handled and are clear on the expectations for behavior in a variety of school settings. The program also focuses on how to model, teach, and reinforce pro-social behaviors such as respect for others, caring and empathic behaviors, in building positive relationships with other students and staff members.

The student components of the program teaches students how to both identify and effectively respond to behavior, and how to get adult help if they're proactive responses are not stopping it. Just as important, students are taught in many strategies and how to be a "good bystander" when they are watching someone getting picked on or socially isolated. Bystander training is critical and changing students' behavior and In shaping positive social norms.

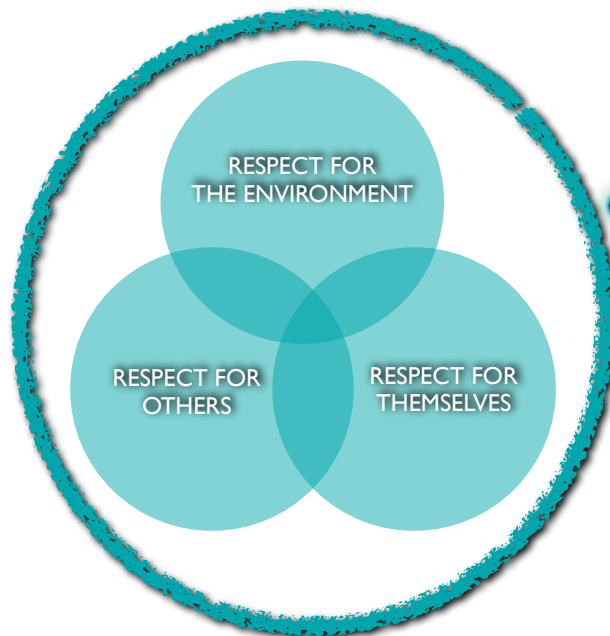

Sometimes when a school implements this kind of program, the response from outside the school is that the school is being "too picky" or that aggressive behavior is "just kids being kids." However, the research is clear: if a school consistently addresses the small stuff, they seldom see behavior escalate into more serious forms of aggression. Our ultimate goal is to make all students feel safe and help them reach their full potential. We have a broad definition of mean teasing and other hurtful behaviors to be able to "sweat the small stuff." We know that aggressive behavior can come with the guise of "just kidding" or "we were just horsing around" types of behaviors. We also know that the recipients of this type of behavior seldom interpret it in the same benign fashion and are frequently negatively affected by it.

Please review and become familiar with the supplemental resources included in this communication. They will provide additional detail on components of our program.

Thank you for your continued support and partnership from home!
