

Name _____

1. What region of the United States does Michigan belong in?
 - a: Southwest
 - b: North East
 - c: Midwest

2. What is the state capital of Michigan?
 - a: Grand Rapids
 - b: Lansing
 - c: Detroit

3. What is an example of someone using a natural resource?
 - a: walking a dog
 - b: fishing on a river
 - c: reading the newspaper

4. What is one negative consequence of pollution in our lakes?
 - a: plants in the water will grow larger
 - b: fish like the water when it's dirty
 - c: microplastics end up in our drinking water

5. Zac lives in Detroit. Detroit is in Wayne County. Which is also true?
 - a: Zac lives in the Upper Peninsula
 - b: Zac lives in Maryland
 - c: Zac lives in the Midwest

6. Why do most people in Michigan live in the southeastern part of the state?
 - a: There are more jobs opportunities
 - b: The north has too many trees
 - c: It's close to the water

Use the maps below to answer the following questions.

7. In what direction is Missouri from Michigan?

- a: South
- b: North East
- c: South West

8. In what direction is Lake Ontario from Michigan?

- a: East
- b: West
- c: South

9. In what direction is Kentucky from Michigan?

- a: East
- b: West
- c: South

10. In what direction is Pennsylvania from Michigan?

- a: North East
- b: South West
- c: South East

11. What part of Michigan is closest to Wisconsin?

- a: Thumb Peninsula
- b: Lower Peninsula
- c: Upper Peninsula

12. In what direction is New York from Michigan?

- a: North
- b: South
- c: East

13. What is a positive consequence of cutting down forests?
- a: There is more wood for building homes.
 - b: Animals homes would be lost.
 - c: There will be more water to drink.
14. What is a negative consequence of cutting down forests?
- a: There is more wood for building homes.
 - b: Animals homes would be lost.
 - c: There will be more water to drink.
15. What is one reason people might move out of Michigan?
- a: Better job opportunities.
 - b: Michigan is too hot all year.
 - c: There are not enough beaches.
16. Many oranges we buy here come from Florida. Many apples sold in Florida come from Michigan. Why do you think this happens?
- a: People in Florida like apples more than people in Michigan.
 - b: Florida and Michigan trade apples for oranges.
 - c: Different foods grow better in different climates.
17. Why do you think so many Christmas trees come from Michigan?
- a: People in Michigan love Christmas.
 - b: Most of our state is covered by trees and forests.
 - c: Michigan wants less trees in their state.
18. Which of the following is an example of humans changing the environment to fit their needs?
- a: People cut down trees to build a house.
 - b: People go to the beach in the summer.
 - c: People work for big car companies.

19. Which is NOT included in the Great Lakes region?

- a: Wisconsin
- b: Iowa.
- c: New York.

Use the map above to label the Great Lakes by the letters below.

A _____

B _____

C _____

D _____

E _____

Detroit is located in Wayne County. Explain how this map can be divided into regions.

Michigan can be divided into two regions – the Superior Upland and the Central Lowland. Use the space below to describe the characteristics of each region.

